THE South-Carolina GAZETTE.

From THURSDAY July 15th, to THURSDAY July 22d, 1756.

The following ABSTRACT of an Act, intitled, an Act for disposing of the ACADIANS now in Charles Town, by settling One Fifth Part of their Number in the Parishes of St. Philip and St. Michael, and the other Four Parts of them in the several other Parishes within this Province, is published in this Gazette, by His Excellency's Command, to the End that all Persons concerned may govern themselves accordingly.

ENACTED, That the governor, with the advice of his majesty's council, have power to send 4 5ths of the Acadians, now in Charles-Town, into the several other parishes in this province, in such manner as he shall judge convenient.

That the expence of so sending them shall be defrayed by a general tax.

That the church-wardens and vestries, and other persons appointed for that purpose, shall be obliged to receive and take charge of the Acadians so sent into their respective parishes; and keep them in such places in the said parishes as they shall judge to be most convenient, with the consent of the owners of such places: And shall also provide for their maintenance and support, at the public expence, for the space of three months after receiving them, unless they are sooner disposed of, not exceeding the rate of ten shillings per head, per week: Under pain of forfeiting five pounds for every Acadian they neglect or refuse to receive, take charge of, maintain, &c.

That in case any Acadians shall remain in any of the said parishes, after the expiration of the said three months, who shall not be able to labour, or whom the church-wardens and vestries cannot bind out, such shall be maintained at the public expence.

That when any of the said Acadians are ordered to be sent into any of the parishes aforesaid, the commissary-general shall take an account of their number, age, sex, and sizes, and enter the same in a Book, together with the names of the parishes they are sent to; to the end that, if any of them leave the said parishes, they may be returned thereto; which may be done by any justice of the peace: And the said church wardens, &c. are obliged to receive them again, under the like penalty as before imposed.

That in case any of the said Acadians shall refuse to labour with such persons as are willing to provide them with cloaths and victuals for their service, then the said church-wardens, vestry, and other persons to be appointed as aforesaid, or any of them, are authorized and impowered, by a certificate under their or either of their hands and seal, to bind the Acadians, or any of them, to such persons as may be willing to take them, upon such terms, and for such time as the said church wardens, &c. or any of them shall think necessary: But no Acadian upwards of 18 years of age, shall be obliged to serve more than three years, nor any under 18 longer than 'till they arrive at the age of twenty one years.

That the said certificates shall be in the words and form following, viz.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

I (L.S.) CERTIFY that [illegible] bound to [illegible] for the Space of [illegible] Years from the Date hereof, according to the Directions of an Act of the General Assembly of the said Province, intitled, An Act for the disposing of the Acadians now in Charles Town, by settling One Fifth Part of their Number in the Parishes of St. Philip and St. Michael, and the other Four Parts of them in the several other Parishes within this Province. The said [illegible] to find the said [illegible] sufficient Meat, Drink, Cloathing, Washing, and Lodging.

Given under my Hand and Seal, this [illegible] Day of [illegible] Anno Domini [illegible]

That the said church-wardens, &c. shall have for every such certificate twenty shillings current money, from the person to whom they bind any Acadian: And that the said church-wardens, &c. shall enter the name of every Acadian so by them bound, and of every person to whom bound, in a book; that recourse may be had to the same if need be. But such certificate shall be void and of none effect, whenever his majesty's pleasure shall be signified that the said Acadians shall be otherwise disposed of.

That the said certificate shall be sufficient in law to bind every Acadian according to the tenor thereof, and be transferable, and subject them to all the regulations mentioned in the act for the governing of white servants, as if an indenture had been voluntarily executed by every person so bound.

That the church-wardens, &c. of St. Philip's parish shall dispose of the remaining fifth of the said Acadians, in the same manner and form, and be under the same regulations, &c. as is directed in the disposing of them in other parishes. And,

That it shall not be lawful for any of the said Acadians to have or use any fire-arms or other offensive weapons, on any account or pretence whatever; and any person finding such in their possession may take and keep the same to his own proper use.

BOSTON, May 10.

By a vessel from Chiegnecto in Nova-scotia, we are informed, that the Indians had lately killed 10 of our soldiers, all regulars, except one, and taken one prisoner, after a smart engagement that lasted near 2 hours.

Williamsburgh, May 7. By an express this week from Winchester we are informed, that the communication between that place and fort Cumberland is now open, a messenger having lately arrived, acquainting that the garison was well, and under no apprehensions of any attack.

Philadelphia, May 20. We have advice from Carthagena, by Capt. Snook, that two-thirds of Panama was lately destroyed by fire, occasioned by the carelessness of a negro.

Boston, May 24. The beginning of last week a fishing schooner arrived here, the master of which (Thomas Rowe) made oath, that on the 3d instant, being on the grand bank, at anchor, he was hailed by a French man of war of 74 guns, full of men, who asked Mr. Rowe many questions, particularly how many men of war were at Boston and Halifax, and how many were cruizing before Louisbourg, after which he stood away to the Westward. About half an hour after Mr. Rowe saw 2 other ships which he took to be French, standing the same course, with the wind at E.N.E.

LONDON, May 11.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, dated April 30.

"The last assembly of the states of Holland was more interesting than any of the preceding. The states before they separated came to a determination concerning the part they should take in the quarrel between France and Great Britain, and the demand made of the stipulated succours. With regard to this important article, it was resolved to observe a strict neutrality, without intermeddling, in the least, in the quarrel between those two crowns concerning their possessions in America, to grant no succours; carefully to avoid giving any umbrage or the least pretence to either to complain of partiality; but if his Britannic majesty's kingdoms should be actually attacked, in that case to furnish England with the stipulated succours.

"This resolution of the states of Holland and West Friesland has been carried to the assembly of the states-general. We hear, that the states of Zealand have taken the same resolution in this affair, and likewise sent it to their high mightinesses, who will doubtless take very soon a final resolution in this matter, which will be communicated in form to the [illegible] letters and verbal intelligence from the North, is, that col. Bradstreet, with 600 batteaux and whale boats, with abundance of provisions, all got safe to Oswego without interruption; and it is thought that col. Schuyler, and his division, are likewise got up safe, as they were not far off a few days ago:—A large number of cattle about the same time were drove up safe:—That the vessels were in order on the lake, and every thing had a promising aspect there, more especially as every thing was begun and finished with a good will: That there was a great stock of provisions on the other side of the great carrying place, ready to be transported to Oswego: That the said carrying-place was rendered considerably less by the industry of Mr. Bradstreet when he was about passing it: That they had a false alarm at the Genesee flats on the 28th instant, and that a large body of French and Indians were on their march to way-lay the Carrying-place: That general Johnson had set out from the flats on the 5th instant for Onondago, distant from the flats about 60 miles, there to hold, 'tis said, the most important treaty with the Indians that has been held for some years past, upon the success of it, it's likewise thought, the future friendship of all the Indian tribes will, to a great measure, principally depend: That the general before he left the flats spoke with some Indians there, who told him that numbers of the French and Indians were daily gathering together at Oswegatchi, with an intent as much as in some place throughout.—That lieutenant Henry Gadgood, of sir William Pepperrell's regiment, and aid-de-camp, died at Skenectady the 15th instant, on his march to Oswego, being in company with a body of other officers and men who set out from Albany for that garison some days before.—That col. Bradstreet returned to Albany yesterday se'nnight from Oswego, and reported the missing of 10 of the wood cutters some days before near that fortification, supposed to be carried off by a body of the enemy. That the famous Rogers, of fort William Henry, had made another tour near the French encampments at Crown-Point, and upon his return gave out, that he had unwarily marched with his party so near the point, as to get between a body of the enemy who were erecting a battery at a few miles distance from the fort, and the point itself; that himself and men were obliged to separate; and that he afterwards hovered about Crown Point, where he says he could [illegible] French busily employed in every thing but longing to fortification work, and [illegible] with provisions from Canada; and to get a larger party to go back [illegible] to cut off those erecting the battery, he is sure of accomplishing.

By letters and passengers that came down last Saturday, from Albany, we are assured, that some day the week before last, the aforesaid Rogers's younger brother, between fort William Henry and fort Edward, met with a Frenchman and an Indian, the latter of whom he killed and scalped outright, but took the other prisoner: Rogers threatened him with immediate death if he did not tell the proceedings of his countrymen, which he declared that the Indian and himself were of a party of 200 French and Indians that came out to way-lay the passages above Saraghtoga: Upon which Rogers conveyed him to one of the forts, and between three and four hundred of our forces were directly dispatched to endeavour to cut the enemy off.

Major general Winslow, commander in chief of all the provincial forces now going against Crown Point, arrived at Albany on saturday evening last, from Boston.

Boston, May 28. By the last vessel from Halifax we have advice, that the Indians had lately killed 10 persons at a small distance from Lunenburgh, and 2 others were missing; and that a serjeant and 10 men having been sent out from Chiegnecto or Pisguit to cut wood, &c. on their return to the fort, were beset and killed. Also, that 4 other men were either killed or taken at Pisguit, only one of them being found, whose body was cruelly mangled from head to foot.

Philadelphia, May 27. In a letter from Dumfries in Virginia, dated the 13th instant there is advice, that at Winchester, and about it, the inhabitants seemed to be in a good degree restored to their usual tranquility, most of the people who had left their plantations having returned to them. That near 1000 of the militia were assembled from the adjacent counties, but it was thought would soon be discharged, the cause of their being called together, seeming to be removed. And that col. Washington was set out for fort Cumberland on the 10th of this month, whose corps was to be made up 1500 by the 20th, by a draught of the militia throughout the colony, who are to be able-bodied young men, and to be draughted by ballot, every 20th to go, or send a man in his room.

Newbern in North-Carolina, May 12. [illegible] goods, the Indians set up the war hoop, flew to trees and were preparing to fire on our people, who being inferior in number, were obliged to quit them: They were again pursued by a stronger party of our people, who came up with them again at a town belonging to the Catawba nation of Indians where, thro' the means of that nation, the horses and some of the goods were retaken, and a white woman, who was in their company, brought back to Salisbury supreme court, and there tried, for being concerned with the said Indians.

Boston, June 7. By a vessel from the West-Indies we are informed, that the French at Martinico have lately bought up 10,000 barrels of provisions at St. Eustatia, and were fitting out the Warwick man of war (lately taken from us) to convoy them to the river Mississippi.—Also, that immense quantities of provisions of all sorts are carried to St. Eustatia from the Northern colonies, notwithstanding all their acts.

By letters by the last Albany post, dated this day se'nnight, we have advice, that lieutenant Brooks, with a party of 40 men, was attack'd within 2 miles of fort Edward, by about 200 Indians and French, some of them regulars, who killed the lieutenant and 2 of his men, wounded 2 others, and 8 more were missing. And that upon advice of this disaster, Capt. Rogers, with 173 men, went in quest of the enemy, and that it was not doubted but he would give a good account of them.

Philadelphia, June 3. On tuesday last the ship London, Capt. Keeve, arrived here from London. By him there is advice, that the hon. Thomas Pownall, Esq; is appointed governor of this province, and that he was to set out for this place with lord Loudon.

New-York, June 7. Monday and tuesday last arrived here 2 sloops from North-Carolina, having on board governor Dobb's son, major Edward Brice Dobbs, and his 200 North-Carolinians, sent hither to assist in the reduction of the fortress at Crown-Point: And a day or two after they disembarked and encamped on Kennedy's island to refresh themselves.

Thursday last a snow arrived here from Rhode-Island, having on board 220 men; and on saturday they set sail for Albany.

Boston, June 14. The exportation of provisions and warlike stores from any part of this province, is prohibited 'till after the 20th day of September next.

By the last Albany post we have advice, that on the 28th of May past, 13 Yorkers were attacked by about 40 of the enemy, at a place called the Lower-Still-Water, who killed 3 of our people, and took 5 prisoners.

By letters from New-York we are inform'd that on monday last general Webb, with a number of other officers, arrived there from England, and that the general intended to set out for Albany the next day.

CHARLES-TOWN, July 22.

By Capt. Brown from Jamaica, who arrived here last Monday in a Passage of 17 Days, we learn, that Admiral Knowles, late Governor of that Island, was to sail for England the Day after he left it, in His Majesty's Ship Sphynx: That the Princess Mary had lately carried in a French Guineyman, mounting 20 Guns, having near 800 Negroes on board, who exchanged two broadsides with the Man of War: And

Vessels had also carried in there, a French bound Vessel, laden with Indico and Sugar, that about 70 Virginians are arrived in the Cherokee Country, in order to assist in erecting a Fort designed to be built there

Capt. who arrived here Yesterday in 34 days from Boston, informs us, that His Majesty's Ship Westerich, of 50 Guns, was sailed from thence to reinforce Commodore Frankland at Antigua: And that on the 24th of last Month, (being then in Lat. 39 16, and Long. 66), at one o'Clock in the Afternoon, he heard a smart Firing like Broadsides, which continued at least half an Hour, and supposes it to have been an Engagement between some English and French Ships.
